

NASSAU MUSIC EDUCATORS ASSOCIATION

PRESENTS

NMEA CAREER DAY

FREEPORT HIGH SCHOOL 50 S. BROOKSIDE AVENUE FREEPORT NY 11520
9AM-12PM PROFESSIONAL PANEL/LUNCHEON
ADMISSION IS FREE

Student Registration:

Present your commitment form to your school music educator to submit on

<https://www.nmeaac.org/>

Teacher Registration:

CTLE Hours are available through NYSCAME register for NMEA Career Day on mylearningplan.com.

Date: February 8, 2020

Time: 9am-12 noon

Place:

Freeport High School
50 S. Brookside Avenue
Freeport, NY 11520

Schedule:

9:00 Arrival

9:15 Introductions

9:30 Panel Presentations

11:15 Luncheon

12:00 Dismissal

www.nassaumusic.org

facebook

twitter

instagram

Career Day is a new event sponsored by NMEA to highlight college pathways and employment opportunities available to high school students in grades 9-12 interested in exploring a life-long passion for music by making connections with respected performers, artists and educators in the field beyond music education and music therapy.

Students will participate in break-out sessions and engage in interactive activities with meaningful discussions that will guide and inspire them. The impact of this day will leave the students feeling knowledgeable and empowered with memories that will make an impact on their post high school decisions.

Meet the NMEA 2020 Career Day Presenters!

Jason Melker, Producer

Jason owns and operates Jayem Artist Management, an independent management company focused on the development of local talent. Jayem provides product management services to independent record labels.

Jonathan Watkins, Business Owner/Instrument Sales and Repair

Jonathan Watkins, owner of Wright Music and professional musician, has over 40 years of experience encompassing every facet of the music retail industry.

Karen Beluso- Professional Pianist and Steinway & Sons Sales Manager

Karen Beluso is a Julliard Graduate and has traveled the world as a soloist and accompanist. She currently is the Sales manager for Steinway & Sons in Manhattan.

David Gould- Professional Clarinetist

David Gould is a featured concerto soloist in America and Europe. He is currently third clarinet and bass clarinetist with the American Ballet Theatre Orchestra and director of the Vandoren Musician's Advisory Studio in Manhattan.